Artists from all over the world are invited to apply for this international event.

The Biennale offers artists a unique opportunity to present their recent work as well as an exceptional opportunity to reach and network with a new audience.

The IPTB2024 is supported by an integrated press and media campaign with a focus on attracting both domestic and foreign interest and participation.

Kunststichting Perspektief vzw, together with the participating artists, is responsible for the high quality, presentation and promotion of these crafts.

1. Participation

No registration fee.

The artist is subject to the terms and conditions set out in the agreement below between the exhibitor and the Kunststichting Perspektief vzw to the exclusion of all others.

The organizer reserves the right to modify the terms and conditions at any time.
All applicants must have reached the age of 18 - there are no country or nationality restrictions.
Important: Participation in the International Biennale is only possible on an individual basis - participation by galleries or sales agents is excluded.

The number of works present in the Biennial per artist will be determined at selection by the committee.

The works must be available for the entire exhibition period and may not be removed from the spaces.
There are no restrictions on the shape or weight of the work.

The work must have been made within 24 months prior to October 1st, 2024.

2. Applications

Candidacy: ONLINE deadline 15.07.2024

By this date, the participant has to enter all information in the application form, which is designed as a Google Form. If the participant considers it necessary, s/he can send a Wettransfer file with additional photos and descriptions to artksp@gmail.com

It is mandatory to send the completed application form by the deadline. Sending additional files via Wettransfer is optional.

Required information to be completed in Dutch, French, German or English language.

Sending photos (max. 5) via Google document.

Please ensure images are professionally shot. Good quality images are essential to maximise your chance of selection. Files must be high resolution JPEG or TIFF files, a minimum of 300dpi. The file size should be between 1mb – 3mb (no larger than 8 mb).

The work must not have been shown at any major exhibition in Belgium (juried, solo, group or otherwise).

Mural art works: hanging mechanism must be available

One work can be a series of several artworks, but not more than three in a series.

One artwork = one series = one application.

Each candidate will receive an acknowledgement of receipt after applying.

3. Selection

Selection by the organizer who is independently responsible for an impartial and transparent assessment of the works. The results are reported to all artists via @-mail.

After assessment of the files, a reserve list will also be drawn up – selected artists who are unable (or decline) to be present at the Biennale will automatically be replaced by a candidate from the reserve list. Selected artists must confirm their participation. It is mandatory to return the confirmation within 10 days after notification.

During the installation of the works, the organizer will exercise control over the proposed works. The organizers reserve the right to make changes to the statute of the Biennale to ensure a fair and professional event.

All changes will be communicated to the selected artists.

All works presented at the Biennial must be salable (prices including VAT), a commission of 20% will be deducted by the Kunststichting Perspektief vzw.

4. Calendar (see below)

Setup of the Biennale: by the Organizer

Applicants are obliged to provide correct information according to provisions of the statute of the Biennale.

Selected artists can only exhibit works selected by the jury.

The organizer has the right to request additional details about proposed works and reserves the right to refuse any object that does not meet the requirements.

5. Assignment

The location for the artwork installation is the organisers responsibility.

Exhibitors are prohibited from displaying or selling work that has not been accepted on their stand/or outside it, or from storing material or personal belongings within the allocated space.

The use of video equipment is not allowed.

Display material (pedestals) can be provided by the organizer depending on the type of work.

Prior withdrawal of the artwork from the exhibition is not possible.

6. Indemnification

Works are insured for the exhibition duration by the organizer based on the work's stated sales value (including VAT). For high amounts, the Art Foundation is free to determine limitations with regard to the insurance amount in mutual consultation.

Important: Article 2 of the general policy conditions : the theft guarantee stipulates that the insurance is only applicable by “theft committed with burglary, violence or threats”.

7. Security

The exhibition hall (outside the exhibition’s opening hours) is secured by a camera and/or electronic alarm system.

8. Catalog

The organizer will edit a catalogue of which participating artists will receive a free copy.

9. Publicity

All exhibitors are invited to the official opening - to promote the event, participants are also invited to support this event through personal publicity/digital.

10. Copyright

To promote their art, the artists grant temporary exclusive copyright for promotional purposes to the Kunststichting Perspektief vzw, both nationally and internationally.

Promotional use: distribution through press channels, and the Internet (digital).

The copyright is and will of course remain the personal and exclusive property of the exhibitor, who must ensure that this does not infringe any other copyright.

11. Applicable law

General law and (sale) conditions are applied according to Belgian law.
